THANKSGIVING PRAYER

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

It is right to give thanks and praise

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, in your great love you gave your only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who made there a full atonement for the sins of the whole world, through his one offering of himself.

Hear us, merciful Father, we humbly pray, and grant that we receiving this bread and this wine may share in his most precious body and blood

On the night that he was betrayed he took bread and gave you thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper, he took the cup and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying: Drink this, all of you, this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. Amen.

ADMINISTRATION of the bread and wine

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

HYMN Thine be the glory

DISMISSAL

Alleluia, Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed. Alleluia.

We shall be raised.

We shall be raised, Alleluia.

Death will be destroyed.

It will indeed be destroyed. Alleluia.

God will be all in all.

He will indeed be all in all. Alleluia.

Christ is risen.

He is risen indeed. Alleluia.
